

1 - Accommodation

Check-in is after 14:00. If teams wish to check in before 14:00, you will have to pay an extra night. Remember that most rooms will be only available between 2:00 pm and 3:00 pm, which means that it will generally not be possible to check in to your room as soon as you arrive at your destination. The check-out is before 12:00, which means that teams need to leave their rooms before 12:00 on the day of departure. If teams don't leave their rooms before 12:00, you will have to pay an extra night. No refund will be made payment if the team cancels any person from the reservation after 45 days before the start of the tournament (this policy does not apply if a player sends a medical certificate, see cancellation policy). Conditions valid for reservations made through IberCup. Subject to availability confirmation on the day of Booking. Prices can change if you book after the normal booking period. For other terms and conditions, visit our website. Please contact us for detailed prices. Please check with the IberCup team for the dates of your accommodation.

If a team has a pre-booking for a specific accommodation, the accommodation may be changed at any time up to 30 days before the tournament starts due to IberCup's logistical issues. IberCup manages the entire room distribution of teams in their accommodation, and any changes in room distributions will have to be approved by IberCup.

School Accommodation

One classroom per team. A maximum of 20 people can stay in a classroom. When teams decide to participate with the basic accommodation package, it's IberCup who decides how many people will be in each classroom. Participating teams with the basic price of the package per person cannot decide how many people will be in each classroom, unless they pay an additional cost to use more classrooms. A minimum of one and a maximum of four leaders per team may remain at the school. All people staying in schools have to pay for the cost of accommodation. Sleeping bags or beds are not included in the price. You can rent sleeping bags with an additional charge per person, per week. For logistical reasons, IberCup only inform teams about the name of the school 30 days before the tournament begins.

Accommodation in Bungalows and Hostel

The price per person for accommodation in the bungalows and hostel is based on 4 or more people per room. When teams decide to participate with the basic accommodation package, IberCup decides how many people will stay in each room. The teams participants with the basic package price per person cannot decide how many people will stay in each room, unless they pay an additional cost to have occupancy rooms with 1, 2 or 3 people. For logistical reasons, IberCup will inform the teams about of the bungalow name 30 days before the tournament begins. Because distribution of bungalows in the camp, your team may need to be divided in different areas. IberCup doesn't have the power to decide on this matter, which is sole responsibility of the management of the bungalows. Each bungalow has at least one double bed for 2 people, in which case 2 people will have to share the same bed.

Hotel

The price per person in hotel accommodation is based on 3 or more people per bedroom. When teams decide to participate with the basic accommodation package, it is the IberCup that decides how many people will be in each room. Participating teams with the basic package price per person cannot decide how many people will stay in each room, unless they pay an additional cost to have rooms of occupancy with 1 or 2 people. For logistical reasons, IberCup will only inform teams on the name of the hotel 30 days before the tournament starts. Due to the number limited number of rooms per floor, your team can be divided into different floors. THE IberCup has no decision-making power on this matter, which is the responsibility of exclusive to hotels. Some hotel rooms have a double bed for 2 people, and in that case, 2 people will have to share the same bed. For rooms with 3 or more people, not all hotels have triple occupancy, so the hotel can place one or two extra beds or a sofa bed in a double room, which may not be of identical quality and comfort.

For Family

For family members and companions, hotel reservations can be arranged at reasonable prices by the organization. Parents and family can book their hotel through IberCup. Transport to the games is not included in the price options of accommodation. To be entitled to this service, please consult the organization.

Security Payment

In all types of accommodation, it is necessary to leave a security deposit * (500€ in cash or credit card per team) that must be done during the "check-in" in the accommodation. * This value may be different depending on the type of accommodation. THE deposit will be returned after inspection of the rooms, to verify that the rooms are in the same condition they were at "check-in" and without damage. In the event of damage detected, the incident will be reported to the team and the hotel management reserves the right not to refund the security deposit. IberCup can never be held responsible for damage caused by teams on the premises. Without payment security deposit, "check-in" will not be authorized. Check-in is after 14:00.

Rooming List

To avoid delays at check-in, teams must send a final list of people to the quarters, 45 days before the tournament starts. This information is mandatory and works as normal tournament operation. If the team sends this list after 45 days, the team will be penalized (€ 10 per person). If the team does not send the room list up to 45 days before the beginning of the tournament, IberCup will not be responsible for last minute changes related to room changes made by the accommodation management on arrival of the team. If the team cancels or changes any player, manager or member of the family from the original list, this change must be approved by IberCup and may be additional fees charged.

Homestay Conditions

Based on 2 players per home. Extra night on request on subject to availability.

2 - Flights

Prices are based on the departure from the west coast of the USA and Brazil, with 40 people travel and do not include airport taxes or fuel surcharges which are approx. 200€ - 300€ per person. Contact us for a quote and itinerary detailed.

3 - Private Bus

If you hire this service, airport transfers will be included. The teams must send the flight itinerary to IberCup info@ibercup.com 45 days before the start of the tournament. If IberCup does not receive any information about this itinerary, the first airport service will not be done and teams will have to find their own way of travel to your accommodation. IberCup will not schedule any itinerary or program and will not be responsible for any scheduling management or bus of any kind by the team, but will put the team leader in contact with the bus company so that they can manage everything between them. IberCup is not responsible for any schedule related to private bus transportation that is not communicated 15 days before the service starts. Itinerary changes during the tournament they must be communicated to the representative of the bus company. The driver cannot accept any changes without the permission of his supervisor. At the first day of competition, the bus will be available 1:30h before the start of the first game, if the teams do not communicate the time of the game to the bus company on the day previous, and the same rule will apply in the following days. Any changes important information must be communicated 48 hours in advance and during the morning and an extra charge may apply. Note that if the main change is communicated during the afternoon or less than 48h, it will not be accepted. Any delay considered responsible for the transport company, IberCup reserves the right to disclaim any liability in the event of breakdowns, accidents, delays or any other incidents resulting from the use of this transport and which may imply the no-show by the team.

Restrictions on Private Bus Transport

The following restrictions have been established by the International Department of Transportation:

1. Drivers can drive 11 hours a day of driving, a maximum of 4:30 hours without stops, where the driver will also have 45 minutes of rest between each stop.
2. The maximum limit for each bus is 150 km per day.
3. Every day, the driver must have a rest period of 9 hours between services. Remember the time when the service ends that day, so that you have enough time to start the service the next day, so you can get to time of the first game that day.
4. If the team has a game early the next day, it must end the service the day before early, to ensure that the driver has enough hours of rest to start the service at the next time.
5. During the journeys, every 4:30 hours, the driver must make a stop of 45-minute rest. We ask that you be aware of these rules.
6. Please note that if you organize an excursion that involves parking fees, these Fees must be paid by the group.
7. Drivers can change daily. Make sure to provide the information of the pick-up time the day after the bus driver before he leaves.
8. An extra cost will be charged if services exceed 11h per day or 150 km per day.

3.1 - Private Bus Upgrade

If your group is traveling with less than 40 people, you need to add to the cost final this cost per missing person until it reaches 40 people. You do not need to add this cost at prices if your group is traveling with more than 40 people.

There is a limit of 51 people for each bus, so if your group is traveling with more than 51 people, you will have to use 2 buses for your group. In this case, need to add the missing person cost to the final cost until it reaches 80 people. You do not need to add this cost to prices if your group is traveling more 80 people using buses.

3.1.1 - Local Participation + Local Teams with Private Bus

3.2 - Private bus upgrades per day

Prices per day per bus. (Check all terms and conditions of the private buses at point 3). You do not need to add this cost to prices if the your group is already traveling on the private bus included in your package.

3.3 - Airport Transfer

The price is by transfer. Airport transfers to accommodation are not included in the accommodation package, unless you hire it with a private bus. You can book airport transfers through the organization. Teams traveling to the tournament must inform IberCup about their flight schedule 45 days before the start of the tournament. If you informed us after that date, IberCup will not guarantee this service. Airport transfers are exclusive to teams, so not for people who do not book accommodation through IberCup. Family members are not allowed get on the bus if they haven't booked accommodation at IberCup. If you hired this service, know that the service is only for a trip on arrival or a trip to the match. If the team arrives or departs on multiple flights with multiple arrival times / departure and if the groups have less than 20 people, IberCup cannot guarantee several transfers, but only a group transfer. The team leader will have to choose only a transfer for the group or hire several transfers with the cost associated with each transfer, as this service is contracted as a trip on arrival and a trip on check-out.
